Mrs. Stanley Warner, of the Home Economics Department of the Crescent City High School, brought her Home Economics class of some fifty girls in formal attire to act as floor hostesses and as part of their training, have the principals creating the Focal Point explain to this class the detail of correct wedding etiquette. It was a very informative and pleasant approach to the group.

Mrs. Alyene Dampier, who is famous for her lovely creations for weddings and wedding receptions, did the Bride's table and the Refreshment table. Her great artistry was ably demonstrated in the beautiful cake and lovely things she created as part of the correct service at a formal wedding.

The highlight of the show was the singing of lovely Ethel Donaldson and Lonnie Keene. Miss Donaldson had just completed a tour for the Defense Department, being assigned as Concert Soprano to a group sent out to entertain service men at bases in the Carribean. She was chosen by the Casting Director of the Defense Department for this assignment from a group of six thousand entrants. Mr. Keene is a Music Major at Florida State University and possesses a lovely baritone voice of unusual quality. Miss Donaldson got her BME at the end of the last school year at Florida State University and she is now enrolled in the Graduate School.

The specimen bloom was very lovely and it was gratifying to Putnam Chapter that many top awards went to those from considerable distance and we congratulate these winners and appreciate their cooperation.

The Press, each Chairman and the many friends of the Putnam Chapter deserve great praise for the beautiful show they created. It was well attended and loudly praised and the Chapter wishes to say to any and all who came.....So Happy to Have You!

The winners in the competition section of the show were: Best Amateur in Show - Golden Dent entered by Mrs. Wylie, St. Petersburg; Best Commercial in show - Rose Marie entered by Hibiscus Haven, Tommy Viers, Deland; Commercial Sweepstakes won by W. J. Crocker, New Smyrna; Amateur Sweepstakes won by Bob Bowman, Daytona Beach; Best Commercial Display won by McKnight's Nursery, Jacksonville; Best Mineature - Baptista, entered by Tex L'Argent, Crescent City. Mrs. Zula George and Miss Effie Hartley won Tri Color Ribbons in the Amateur section but the names of the bloom are not available.

=oOo=

* *

NURSERY FOR SALE

Due to ill health owner offers best selection of Hibiscus stock in Florida. Lease land, greenhouses, etc. for long term. Wife would like part-time employment, BUT NOT contingent on sale of nursery.

FOR PARTICULARS WRITE:

T. C. Hudson
633 Tomoka Rd., Daytona Beach

* *

WHITE'S NURSERY

142 Mason Ave. Holly Hill, Florida.

HIBISCUS

ORNAMENTALS CROTONS

PERENNIAL HIBISCUS

We have the best of the new ones and some of the good blooming old favorites

Member of Florida Nurserymen & Grower Assn.

NO SHIPPING PLEASE

* *